LONDON, July 22.

TO the Accounts already publiſhed of the Dutch Treachery and intended Cruelty in the River of Bengal in the Eaſt-Indies, we add, from good Authority, that they intended to have put their Scheme in Execution when all the European Veſſels had left the River; a Day certain being fixed for their Departure, it was ſuppoſed they ſailed according to Appointment, but very providentially the Wind becoming contrary, and there being ſome Goods and Stores unſhipp'd, they waited for Orders for ſhipping thereof; which the pretended Friends being acquainted with, came up the River with Dutch Colours, in a great Meaſure unprepared for a Sea Engagement, but in every Reſpect prepared for a Landing; Boats, Arms, and Men being ready for that Purpoſe: Upon finding their Miſtake, that the Ships bound for England were not ſailed, they would have tacked and run down the River again, but the Vigilance of the Commanders of two of the Company's Ships prevented it, by ſhooting a-ſtern of them; in doing which one of our Ships took two Boats, which were going on Shore with Orders to the Dutch Commandant; theſe People were immediately ſent aſhore to the Engliſh Factory, and there declared the Orders given to, and Intention of the Dutch Squadron, the Number of Men they had on board, and the Quality and Quantity of their Cargoes. Upon this, General Clive cauſed his Troops immediately to be aſſembled, then ſent off to the Dutch Commodore to demand his Buſineſs, with other Particulars, forbidding him to attempt landing any of his Cargo or Men, as he, by his Duty, could not ſuffer ſuch Proceedures: The Commodore gave ſome evaſive Anſwer, and made ſome frivolous Excuſes, and promiſed not to land any Troops, nothing more than ſome Gentlemen, &c. amounting to about Eighty in Number; declared they had but a ſmall Quantity of Salt-petre, and that not intended for Sale, though it afterwards appeared their Ladings conſiſted of little elſe. Under theſe Diſguiſes they landed near 1100 Europeans, in which Number muſt be included about 380 regular Forces, all completely arm'd and officer'd, even the Irregulars; ſoon after which their whole Force on Shore was attacked by a Number of Engliſh, about 350, and obliged to ſubmit with great Loſs: The Sea Engagement happened at the ſame Time, both which Cannonades were the ſharpeſt ever known in that Quarter of the World. The Dutch were not permitted to land one Ounce of Salt-petre or Stores.

Letters from America mention the gallant Behaviour (in the late Action near Quebec) of an Iriſh Serjeant of Bragg's Regiment.——The poor Fellow, it appears, had received a Shot in the Breaſt which rendered him unable to retreat into the Capital with the Reſt of the Troops, he accordingly was left in the Field of Battle, and near him was an Engliſh Volunteer lying on the Ground, who had received a dangerous Wound in the Leg. Not long after the Engagement, the ſavage Indians, as is their Cuſtom, began to ſcalp and ſtrip the dead, and ſix of theſe Wretches approached the Volunteer, with an Intent to ſerve him in this inhuman Manner, the Serjeant collected what Strength he could, and with his Halbert levelled two of them at one Blow; and, weak as he was, killed another ſoon after, when the three remaining ſavage Cowards took to flight. The Serjeant ſeeing Part of a French Regiment near, he called to them in Engliſh, and begged their Aſſiſtance from barbarian Indians; he was luckily underſtood by the commanding Officer, who humanely ordered him and the Volunteer to be taken Care of, and the next Day ſent them to Quebec to protect them from the Reſentment of the Canadians, who had vowed Vengeance againſt the Serjeant.

In ſome of the Papers, it is ſaid that General Clive can realize 1,200,000l. in Caſh, Bills and Jewels; and that his Lady has a Caſket of Jewels, eſtimated to be worth at leaſt 200,000l.

General Clive being ſenſible what Obligations he lay under to Colonel Laurence, under whom he firſt learned the Art of War, by Means of which he laid the Foundation of his immenſe Fortune, and deſirous of giving that experienced Officer a Proof of his Generoſity, has prevailed upon him to accept an Annuity of 500l. per Annum, which ſets the military Skill of the one, and the Honour and Gratitude of the other, in the higheſt Point.

On Friday there was a Meeting of the Commiſſioners for the Longitude at the Admiralty-Office, when they examined Meſſ. Harriſon's Inſtruments, and we hear that 500l. was granted, and that a proper Trial is to be made of them.

The Free-Maſons Lodge at Stockholm have preſented the Orphan-Houſe in that City, with 10,000 Dollars.

July 9. M. Maubert, in the Bruſſels Gazette, tells a long Story about Quebec, in which he inſinuates, that our Government is well acquainted with that Place being in the Hands of the French, and that our Gazette has ſunk the moſt material Part of the late Affair; and concludes with aſſuring us once more, that the French have actually taken it.

The following curious Paragraph dated Paris June 28, is faithfully tranſlated from the Utrecht Gazette: "Laſt Tueſday we received Advices from Canada; they import, that M. de Vaudreuil, Commandant of our Troops in that Part of America, had been timely informed of the March of the Engliſh towards Montreal; that he attacked them with Succeſs, and totally routed them; and that Brigadier Gen. Murray, Governor of Quebec for the Engliſh, having iſſued from that Town with Part of his Garriſon, in order to ſuccour Montreal, was likewiſe beaten. In ſhort, after theſe important Advices, there is no Doubt but that the Engliſh muſt ſoon evacuate all Canada. We are aſſured of the Truth of theſe Facts."—The Writer of the Utrecht Gazette could only mean to expoſe the French by inſerting ſuch Stuff, if he really received it from Paris, as in the very ſame Paper he has inſerted the Account of the Raiſing the Siege of Quebec, publiſhed in the London Gazette.

BOSTON, September 29.

Laſt Friday being appointed to be obſerved as a Day of general Rejoicing for the entire Reduction of CANADA: At Noon his Excellency the Governor, accompanied with the Lieutenant-Governor, the Gentlemen of the Council, and ſeveral other Gentlemen of the Town, preceded by the Troop of Horſe Guards, and guarded by the Company of Cadets, went from the Province Houſe to the Council Chamber, when his Excellency received the Compliments of the Gentlemen on this happy Occaſion: After which, on a Signal given, the Guns at Caſtle William were diſcharged to the Number of 63, which were followed by the Guns of ſeveral Ships in the Harbour. The Troop of Horſe Guards, the Regiment of Militia, and the Company of Cadets being drawn up before the Council Chamber performed their rejoicing Fires. From thence his Excellency, with the Lieutenant-Governor, the Gentlemen of the Council, ſeveral Members of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, and many of the principal Gentlemen of the Town, guarded by the Company of Cadets, went to Faneuil Hall, where a public Dinner for 150 Perſons was provided. After Dinner his Excellency and the Company went to the Concert Hall, on the Invitation of the Managers, and were entertained with a Concert of Muſic. In the Evening his Excellency, &c. went to the Council Chamber, when, upon a Signal given, the Guns of the Batteries were fired, to the Number of 30, and fine Fire-works were played off from a Scaffold erected in King-ſtreet, before the Council Chamber; in the Intervals of which his Majeſty's Health, and many other loyal Healths, were drank: The Gallery of the Council Chamber was adorned with tranſparent Painting; the whole Town was illuminated; there were two large Bonfires erected, with Scaffolding 5 Stories high, on the two principal Hills of the Town, and another of the ſame Structure on a Hill in Charleſtown; and there was a great Variety of Fire-works (beſides the public) played off in different Parts of the Town. In ſhort, there were all poſſible Expreſſions of that univerſal Joy which this happy and glorious Event has diffuſed through this loyal and grateful People.

At the Illumination laſt Friday Evening, on Account of the Reduction of the City of Montreal, and with that the Reduction of all CANADA, in ſeveral Windows in Town were preſented to View ſome ingenious Repreſentations; and from the illuminated Scenery at the Balcony of the Court-Houſe, were exhibited the following Deſigns. On the Front, facing King-ſtreet, in the Middle, Britannia ſitting; on the Left-Hand, Fortitude; on the Right, Minerva: Behind, Neptune and Mars in Attendance. At a little Diſtance, Victory introducing Peace. Britannia, a Female Figure, repreſenting France, proſtrate, her Sword broken, and ſubjecting a Map of Canada at the Feet of Britannia. Behind France a Group of Figures repreſenting Cruelty, Deceit, Craft, and Envy, blaſted by a Flaſh of Lightning from Jupiter, who ſits above, with the Scales of Juſtice ſuſpended by one Hand, and on the other his Thunder Bolt.

On the South End of the Balcony, the Portrait of Mr. Secretary PITT, holding a Bow, Virtue guarding him with her Shield, and Apollo beaming down into his Boſom. At a Diſtance, France attempting to bind America, but transfix'd with a Dart, and the Shackles broken aſunder. Beneath, this Motto, Pro Libertate, exiſtens.

On the other Side of the Balcony, two Obeliſks, with Trophies: One, to the Memory of General Wolfe, a Motto,——Pallas te hoc Vulnere, Pallas Immolas——

The other, in Honour of General Amherſt; above,

Preſenti tibi maturos largimur honores.

And in the Garden of Mr. Sheriff Greenleaf, which was alſo very beautifully illuminated with Lanthorns, &c. was a tranſparent Painting, repreſenting his Majeſty King GEORGE; under him, on the Right, Mr. Secretary PITT; on the Left, his Excellency General AMHERST; below all was the City of Montreal, with the French Flag ſtruck, and the Engliſh one flying on the Walls of that Place; on one Side of which was ſeen France in Tears; repreſented by a Female Figure, wrapped in a Shroud, adorned with Flower de Luces, and ſitting on the Ground in a dejected Poſture, weeping; at her Feet this Inſcription, CANADA REDUCED; and over all, a Repreſentation of the SUN, ſhining in it's full Luſtre.——

Another Account of the ſame Garden.

Among other Demonſtrations of Joy on this happy Event, one Gentleman's Seat was particularly diſtinguiſh'd, by having a great Number of Lamps rang'd on each Side of the Pleaſure-Garden fronting his Houſe. Thoſe in the main Walk, leading to the Front Gate, were ſo diſpos'd as to form a handſome Arch of Fifteen Feet high, and above a Hundred in Length; theſe with another Range on the Top of the Paliſades, and bounding the large Terras Walk, reflecting their Light among the Trees of the Garden, and meeting the Illumination from the Windows of the Houſe, made a very brilliant Appearance, which was very agreeably heightened by a great Concourſe of Ladies and Gentlemen who amus'd themſelves by walking the Garden the whole Evening. At the upper End of the Court Yard was rais'd in an Arch Twelve Feet high, a Piece of tranſparent

Painting; in the Semicircle was fix'd a Repreſentation of his preſent MAJESTY in his Royal Robes, with his Crown plac'd on a Velvet Cuſhion; underneath was the Buſt of Mr. PITT on the Right, and General AMHERST on the Left; below theſe was a Figure of a Woman ſitting on the Ground with a dejected Countenance, the Tears flowing from her Eyes, and a French Flag fallen by her Side; before her Face was drawn the Iſland and Fortreſs of Montreal with the Britiſh Flag triumphing on the Walls; below which was wrote in Capitals, CANADA REDUCED; over all theſe was elevated a fine Repreſentation of the SUN in his brighteſt Luſtre, an Emblem of the Glory of the KING of Great-Britain, and the Wiſdom of his Adminiſtration.

Extract of a Letter from St. Kitts, Auguſt 21.

"One of his Majeſty's Ships of 74 Guns, and a Frigate have ſilenced two Batteries at the Grenades, and cut out 13 Sloops and Schooners, deeply loaded. The Enemy have not been ſo harraſſed in theſe Seas ſince the War, as they have been within this Month paſt. Commodore Douglas conſtantly keeps his Ships employed in cruizing for the Enemy's Privateers, and many are taken, which renders the Navigation to the Weſt-Indies, ſince the Arrival of that Gentleman, much more ſecure than has been experienced."

We hear that the Honourable Commodore Lord Colyill has appointed the Wincheſter Man of War, Captain Hale, to convoy the Maſt-ſhips from Portſmouth Home.——She is daily expected at Piſcataqua from Halifax, for that Purpoſe.—The Crown is alſo expected at Piſcataqua from Halifax, to load with Maſts.

Extract of a Letter from New-Providence, July 28.

"A few Days ago two of our Turtlers returned from a Voyage to the Florida Shore, where they met with a pretty extraordinary Adventure, which I ſhall relate to you. A few Days before they left that Shore they were ſurpriſed at ſeeing a good many Indians approaching in Canoes; towards whom they fired ſeveral Shot, not with an Intent to hurt, but to deter them from coming nearer: The Indians nevertheleſs advanced, and at laſt diſplayed Engliſh Colours. This appeared more ſingular ſtill, but our Turtlers reſolved inſtead of firing miſchievouſly, to let them come near, and ſee the Event. As the Indians approached, ſome of them at laſt ſpoke pretty good Engliſh, ſaid they were Subjects of the ſame King, and were going to War againſt their old Enemies the Indians of Florida. They proved to be 19 Euchees, and had with them a Spaniard, who had been their Priſoner 6 Months, and was to ſerve them as Pilot on their Inroad, to have his Liberty if he was faithful, otherwiſe to be put to Death; after ſtaying ſome Time on board the Veſſels, and behaving very orderly, they went away towards the South Weſt, in Queſt of their Enemies. They had not been gone long, before they fell in with the main Body of the Floridians, whom they ſurprized and fell in upon like a Torrent, killed many, and took 11 Priſoners, without any Loſs on their Side; the reſt took to their Pit-pans and fled South-weſterly. Thus did Vengeance for once fall heavy on thoſe Blood-thirſty Miſcreants who have made numberleſs Sacrifices of our unhappy Countrymen, that have had the Misfortune to be Shipwrecked on that Shore.

"After the Euchees had ſettled Matters ſo as to go on with their Operations, they went on board a new Spaniſh Schooner, which was lying near the Keys, where they had the Engagement, with only one Spaniard on board (the reſt of the Crew, five in Number, being out a fiſhing) which they burnt; they then put both their Spaniards on Shore, and left two of their Number to guard them, proceeding after the Fugitives, but the Indian Guards inconſiderately going to ſleep at one Time, the Spaniards took their Arms, and put an End to their Labours, and came off with every Thing that could be uſeful to them, on board our Veſſels, where they related the Affair of the Engagement and burning of the Schooner as aforeſaid. Soon after our Veſſel met with a Spaniſh Schooner, with whom the two Spaniards went to Cuba.

"Moſt of the Flags of Truce and Monto-Chriſti Traders that were ſent in here, are condemned: Some Spaniards have been diſcharged with Coſts."

WILLIAMSBURG, October 3.

This Week came to Town from New-York ſeven Soldiers of the Virginia Regiment, who were taken Priſoners at the Defeat of Major Grant before Fort Du-Queſne. They were ſent from the Miſſiſſippi to Old-France, and having been exchanged for French Priſoners, were brought from England by the Mercury Man of War.

The Wolfe Privateer is returned from a Cruize, and has brought in a Spaniard and Dutchman.

LONDON.

COURT at Kenſington, July 11, 1760.

Preſent the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, an Extract of a Letter from his Majeſty's Envoy at the Court of Turin, to the Right Hon. William Pitt, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated the 18th of June laſt, repreſenting, That he had juſt received Advice of a Veſſel being arrived at Marſeilles from Syria, with the Plague on board: That upon opening the Hatches, three Perſons dropt down dead, and ſeveral others were taken very ill, and that 3 other Veſſels ſailed in Company with the above mentioned one from the Levant; but as they have not been heard of for ſome Time, it is apprehended their Crews are all dead. And whereas a Quarantine of 40 Days is at this Time ſubſiſting upon all Ships and Veſſels coming from or through the Mediterranean; his Majeſty in Council doth therefore Order, that the ſaid Quarantine be duly and punctually complied with, &c. Gazette.

NEW-YORK, October 6.

LAST Monday Night one Mr. Pearſon, a Mate belonging to his Majeſty's Ship the Mercury, now in this Harbour, having been in Company with a lewd Woman, in a Houſe near the College, in this City, got his Pocket picked of his Money, and ſuſpecting the Woman of the Houſe to be concerned in the Robbery, ſwore if ſhe did not return him the Money, or find him the Woman that ſtole it (ſhe having abſconded directly) he would be her Death that Minute; but ſhe denying any Knowledge of the Affair, Mr. Pearſon immediately drew his Sword, and ſtabbed her in the Body, of which Wound ſhe died laſt Thurſday. The Coroner's Inqueſt being ſummoned, they brought in their Verdict, Wilful Murder. Mr. Pearſon is now confined on board the Mercury.

Monday laſt arrived here the Regiment of Highlanders commanded by Colonel Fraſier.

Friday laſt a Number of Canadians, that were taken at Iſle-Royale, in the River St. Lawrence, by General Amherſt, embarked on board a Sloop for Albany, in order to return to Canada, they having taken the Oaths of Allegiance to his Britannick Majeſty.

We learn by the Poſt from Albany, that all the Provincial Troops which went from Crown-Point to Iſle au Noix, &c. were returned back to that Place, by Order of General Amherſt, after having got within four Miles of Montreal; 'tis ſaid they will ſoon be diſmiſſed, with Leave to return to their reſpective Homes.

Since our laſt, great Part of Col. Montgomery's Highlanders, who lately arrived here from South-Carolina, and went up to Albany, returned hither from above, on their Way to Halifax.

PHILADELPHIA, October 9.

Our laſt Advices from Montreal, are of the 20th ult. when the French Priſoners were embarked, in order to go down to Quebec.

Yeſterday John Bruleman was executed here, for the Murder of Mr. Robert Scull, formerly mentioned in this Paper.

Extract of a Letter from Fort-Bedford, dated September 26, 1760.

"I am ſorry I have no better News to communicate, than the freſh Inſtance of want of Sincerity and Humanity in the Cherokees, who, inſtead of fulfilling the Terms of the Capitulation of Fort-Loudoun, by conducting the Garriſon to Fort Prince George, as they had engaged to do, fell upon them unawares, butchered the Commanding Officer in the moſt cruel Manner, killed all the Officers, except Capt. Stuart, put to Death 25 Soldiers on the Spot, and diſperſed the reſt (above 200) amongſt the Towns, to be Slaves or Sacrifices. They are now gone againſt Fort Prince George; it is thought they reſerved Capt. Stuart, in order to make uſe of him towards the Surrender of that Garriſon; but the Little Carpenter purchaſed him of the Indian that had him, and has brought him, with three other white Men, to Col. Byrd. You may depend upon this as Fact. The Expreſs that paſſed here Yeſterday, in his Way to Fort Pitt, brought me a Letter from Major Irwin, dated the 15th Inſtant, at Stayer's Mill, where Col. Byrd is now encamped, waiting for Orders from Williamſburg. It is thought they will kill all the Priſoners they now have, if the Garriſon of Fort Prince George does not ſurrender, and that if it does they will put the whole to Death, when they have them in their Power. God keep them out of their Hands."

ANNAPOLIS, October 16.

A DISCOURSE Concerning the CONVERSION of the HEATHEN AMERICANS, and the final Propagation of Christianity and the Sciences to the Ends of the Earth.

In TWO PARTS.

Part 1st preached before a voluntary Convention of the Episcopal Clergy of Pennsylvania, and Places adjacent, at Philadelphia, May 2d, 1760; and published at their joint Request.

Part 2d preached before the Trustees, Masters and Scholars of the College and Academy of Philadelphia, at the first anniversary Commencement.

By WILLIAM SMITH, D. D.
Provost of the said College and Academy.

N. B. Though these two Parts were preached at different Times, yet being both on the same Subject and Text (Ps. ii. 8.) they are now joined together. In the first Part, the Author endeavours, from a View of sundry Prophecies, to shew —"That it is God's gracious Purpose to extend the Knowledge of his blessed Gospel to the Heathen around us;" and that, from several Circumstances, in the Situation of Things on this Continent, compared with a general View of the Gospel-progress and Œconomy from the Beginning, there is "a Probability of a speedy Accomplishment of this Event."

In Part 2d the Author considers the planting Seminaries of Learning among us, as one of those Circumstances, and enters into a general Analysis of the Sciences, and of the sublime Gospel Doctrines, in order to shew the great and immediate Subserviency of the former, to the Advancement of the latter. This Part hath been already published in the Author's Volume of Discourses at London, and the following favourable Character given of it.

"In our Author's fifth Discourse (say the critical Reviewers) which turns upon planting the Sciences in America, the Cultivation of Learning and the Sciences is proved to be conducive to the Propagation of Christianity; and the Arguments therein urged, we apprehend, sufficiently confute the Paradox advanced with great Boldness, and maintained with equal Eloquence, by the celebrated Monsr. ROUSSEAU, of Geneva; namely, That the Arts and Sciences have rather corrupted than improved the Manners of Mankind.

Head of South-River, October 15, 1760.
